THE following Catalogue of Books may be very Useful to all Pious and Charitable Persons, (especially to such as live in the Country) who are Religiously disposed to give away any Number of them to their Friends, Dependants, or others.

The Books are for Cheapness bound in Sheep; except such as are particularly mentioned to be bound in Calf. And all the other Tracts are only stitch'd.

And because some Persons may be willing to stitch or bind up several of the small Tracts together; therefore the different Sizes are mark'd [No. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5] signifying that each Tract will bind up with all others that have the like Numbers. And 'tis hoped, That the Booksellers, in the next Edition of the small Tracts, will agree upon a certain Size; so that each of them may be bound up with any of the rest, according to every Person's Choice and Liking; whereby each Discourse will be better preserved, and render'd more useful. And some Charitable Persons have thought that the Treatise called, The Great Duty of frequenting the Christian Sacrifice, printed for J. Churchill, and marked No. 3. may be a proper Size.

Some particular Discourses are printed with a Blank-side, so as to be folded up and sent as a Letter. Others are so printed, that they may be stuck up in Houses, and thereby longer preserved.

For the better describing the Subject Matter contained in the following Books, the Contents thereof are often intermixt with the Titles: which Additions are included with this Mark, [] to distinguish them from the proper Titles.

A PROPOSAL

FOR Teaching Poor Children to Read, &c.

WHEREAS many Parishes are so small, that they can neither furnish a sufficient Number of Children, nor afford Subscriptions for a Charity-School: And whereas in some Places, and at particular Times in the Year, (especially in Harvest) the Parents of many Poor Children are unwilling to spare them at School Hours: To Remedy these and the like Inconveniencies; and that such Children may not be wholly destitute of a Christian Education, but may at least be taught to Read, and to repeat the Church-Catechism; It is Proposed, That discreet and sober Persons may be pitched upon in each Parish, and an Agreement made with them in manner following, viz.

That 2 s. 6 d. shall be Paid for Instructing each Poor Child, so soon as it can Name and Distin-

A Proposal for Teaching Poor Children.

Distinguish all the Letters in the Alphabet : And the like Payment, when the Child can Spell well : And 3 s. more when such Child can Read well and distinctly, and Say the Church-Catechism. By which Means Poor Children may be Taught to Read for Ten Shillings ; and the additional Charge for Books, will be very inconsiderable.

This Way of Teaching, hath been already Practised with good Success ; particularly in the Parishes of Hannington and South-Marston in Wiltshire ; which hath given Encouragement to Publish the same, in Hopes that Pious and Charitable Persons will take some such Methods in other Places, where there seems any Difficulty of settling Schools ; that so the Charitable and Useful Work of Instructing Poor Children in the Principles of our Holy Religion, may in some measure be carried on, in every Part of the Nation ; to the Glory of God, the Good of Souls, and to the lasting Benefit of the Publick, who will have no small Share in the Blessings and Advantages which attend a Religious Education.
